

Livingston People

Former Livingston resident Brian S. Glatt, M.D., a plastic, cosmetic and reconstructive surgeon, has recently opened his own practice, Premier Plastic Surgery Center of New Jersey, in Morristown. Dr. Glatt underwent his plastic surgical training at the University of Pennsylvania as well as the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center. He specializes in facial cosmetic and reconstructive surgery, cosmetic and reconstructive breast surgery, skin injectables and Botox, as well as body contouring, including tummy tucks and liposuction.

Crowe, Chizek and Company has been listed as one of the top ten Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) accounting and consulting firms in the Public Accounting Report (PAR), announced Crowe chief executive officer Mark Hildebrand. The company has an office in Livingston. PAR, a widely circulated independent publication covering the public accounting profession, ranked Crowe seventh in the 2006 survey based on U.S. SEC net revenue. For fiscal year 2006, which ended March 31, 2006, PAR reported Crowe's net SEC revenue of $83.1 million, up 42 per cent since the prior fiscal year. PAR also ranks firms on an overall basis. Crowe Chizek ranks as the eighth largest public accounting and consulting firm according to PAR's top 100 firms list, released in late 2006.

Burgdorff ERA Realtors recently announced that Rochelle Doliner is now part of the company as a sales associate in its Livingston office/Gail Lowenstein Division. Doliner is a New Jersey real estate sales associate with 30 years of experience in the industry. She is a member of the Garden State Multiple Listing Service and attained the New Jersey Association of Realtors' (NJAR) Circle of Excellence Award from 1977 to 2004. For her longtime professional service in the real estate field, she was named a member of the NJAR Distinguished Sales Club. She has also earned the Gail Lowenstein Gold Circle Club and Silver Level Million Dollar Club awards. A graduate of Rutgers University, Doliner has been a Livingston resident since 1960. She is active in the local community as a member of the Daughters of Israel, UJA, NCJW and Temple Beth Shalom in Livingston.

Livingston Mall has begun construction on its new food court, announced mall manager Noreen Boyle. The project is expected to be completed and fully operational late this fall. The 20,000-square-foot expansion, which will include seating for almost 400, will be located on the upper level near Macy's.

Continues on next page

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Ruth Pierce of Old Bridge, who died in the Raritan Bay Medical Center on February 28 at the age of 86. Mrs. Pierce had been a supervisor at Inglemoor Rehabilitation and Care Center in Livingston.

Emil Karl Jung, 86, died Thursday, March 1, in Saint Clare's Hospital, with funeral arrangements to be private. Mr. Jung founded Equidad International Inc. Real Estate in Livingston in 1976, retiring in 2000. Prior to that, he had been a real estate broker with the Degnan Realty Company for 16 years.

Services were held yesterday, Wednesday, for 89 year old Mary (Pysh) Vargo, who died March 2 in her Clark home. Mrs. Vargo had been a hostess at Cedar Hill Country Club in Livingston for 20 years prior to her retirement in 1982.

In addition, a memorial service was held in Florida for Murray Singer, who died February 25 in his home in Hallandale Beach, Florida. Prior to his retirement, the 80 year old former South Orange resident had been a principal of the Singer Engineering Company in Livingston.

Former Livingston residents Judy and Phil Karp have recently taken up residence in Beijing, China, following Phil Karp's appointment by the World Bank as country coordinator for China for the next three years. Judy Karp, an attorney, is a former partner in the national law firm of Kirkpatrick and Lockhart.

Carlo Mainardi, M.D., M.B.A., F.A.C.P., F.A.C.R., of Livingston, was recently named vice president of Medical Affairs at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center (NBIMC), an affiliate of the Saint Barnabas Health Care System. In this position, Dr. Mainardi will serve as an administrator and liaison for the 790-member medical staff, working closely with administrators, physicians and department directors on matters of patient care at Newark Beth Israel Medical Center and Children's Hospital of New Jersey, also based at NBIMC. Dr. Mainardi joined the NBIMC Medical Staff in 1998 as the chairman of the Department of Medicine. He has also served as director of the Center for Arthritis Support at NBIMC. Dr. Mainardi is a clinical professor of Medicine at the Mount Sinai School of Medicine in New York and the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine.

U.S. Rep. Donald Payne (D-Tenth District), center, met recently with Nicole Gunia, NJAHU president-elect and Livingston-based insurance professional, and Brad Greenbaum, president of the New Jersey Association of Health Underwriters (NJAHU) and a Fairfield-based insurance professional, at the congressman's Washington, D.C. office. Gunia and Greenbaum attended the NJAHU's Capitol Conference to discuss key health insurance issues with legislators and policy makers.